

SOME CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS OF DYER COUNTY, TENNESSEE

BY Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2015

PREFACE

The following collection of cemetery inscriptions was taken from selected cemeteries in Dyer County, Tennessee.

These inscriptions were obtained from the original book titled "Cemeteries Inscriptions of Dyer County, Tennessee" Compiled by Mrs. Quintard Glass, Newbern, Tennessee of The Key Corner DAR Chapter of Dyer County Bicentennial Project and published by Southern Historical Press.

Due to my interest in some selected families in the Dyer County, Tennessee area, the following cemeteries are represented in this book...

[1] Center Cemetery located approximately 8 miles from Newbern, Tennessee. Pages 2-3

[2] Porter Cemetery located on the Sharpsferry Road about three miles from Newbern. Page 4 or 166 from the book.

[3] Rehobeth Methodist Church and Cemetery located about 7 miles east of Dyersburg. Pages 5-31 or 167-193

[4] RoEllen Cemetery located approximately 5 miles south of Newbern. Pages 32-36 or 194-198

[5] Shaw Cemetery located in the Tatumville Community. Page 37 or 199

This is a partial list of only a few cemeteries represented in Mrs. Quintard Glass' book. For a complete listing of all the cemeteries I suggest you Google the title or write to Southern Historical Press to see if this book is still in print.

CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS
OF

CENTER CEMETERY

Center Cemetery is located approximately eight miles from Newbern. From Newbern, cross the Illinois Central Railroad at the Jefferson St. intersection and travel to the city limits. Then, continue on the Tatumville Highway for $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles before turning east on the Edgewood road. Travel $5\frac{1}{2}$ miles on the Edgewood Road, and Center Church and cemetery are located on the left hand side of the road.

Center received its named because it was in the center of four communities, namely Churchton, Nebo, Tatumville, and Edgewood.

In 1851 six acres of land was purchased from J. A. Templeton for the purpose of building a church with an adjoining cemetery on the grounds. A large two story building of logs was erected. The upper story was used for the Order of the Sons of Temperance and the lower story was used for a community school house. The seats were made of split logs with pegs to hold them together.

In 1875 a new frame building was erected 50 years east of the old log structure. In 1949 a new church building of brick was erected because the old building was inadequate.

PORTER CEMETERY

The Porter Cemetery is located on the Sharpsferry Road about three miles from Newbern. Originally Porter land, the plot is now owned by Burton Pledge. In Newbern, turn on to Sharpsferry Road from Highway 51 N. at the Dyer County Junior High School and travel approximately eight miles. Barely visible, the cemetery is on a hill on the left hand side of the road.

REHOBETH METHODIST CHURCH AND CEMETERY

Rehobeth United Methodist Church is located about seven miles east of Dyersburg, just north of State Highway 104, and about six or seven miles south of Newbern, Tennessee. The Methodists named the new church Rehobeth, which means "Broad Places" or "More Room". It is the name of one of the wells dug by Issac and his men in the valley of Gerar (Genesis 26: 17-22). Land was given to the Methodists by Mr. Steve Chitwood, the Smiths, and others for a church site. A building was erected during the year 1869 and was named Rehobeth Methodist Church, South. Rev. H. B. Avery, the father of Mrs. Nell (Avery) Walker, dedicated the church. Rev. Avery was then Presiding Elder, and he also had the deed recorded for the church grounds, which included a large tract for burying purposes. This ground was set aside for white and negro.

Many changes have taken place in the Rehobeth community but the same frame building erected in 1869 wtilt remains strong, and a landmark in the community. After a century of worship many of the relatives of the Chitwoods, Rays, Smiths, Doaks, Pursells, Webbs, Hendersons, Hollands, Sawyers, Tatums, McHaneys, Roberts, Sells, and others still worship in the same building that was erected in 1869, a hundred years ago. According to the records, the first person buried in the cemetery was Mary Chitwood. Her husband was John Chitwood, who is buried in Virginia.

ROELLEN CEMETERY

* RoEllen Cemetery (White and Black) is located on a hillside approximately five miles south of Newbern. At the intersection of Highway 51 S. and Roellen Highway in Newbern, turn left at the red light and travel about five miles directly south. The RoEllen Cemetery is on the left-hand side of the road on a shaded hill. Only a wire fence separates the RoEllen White Cemetery from the RoEllen Negro Cemetery. The Negro Cemetery is to the north of the White. Plans are underway to mark the cemetery with a wrought iron sign.

SHAW CEMETERY

Shaw Cemetery is located in the Tatumville Community. Travel Highway 104 east from Dyersburg to the by-pass at Tatumville. Turn left off of the by-pass and go through Tatumville, in front of the Tatumville Grocery, which is on a curve. Turn to the right on the first blacktop road and travel east about six hundred yards. The cemetery is on the south side of the road on a bank.
